

Important Information about Brett Wood Taylor's Santa Shiai 2011

Fellow Judoka,

We will be back at the Riverside Gym and as usual, we will have online entry. We are keeping last year's pricing structure to encourage early entry. The biggest discount will go to entries that are made more than a week early. We also have a family discount for 3 or more players.

We hope that you will utilize the online entry and encourage other players to use it also. The more players that pre-register, the easier it is to get the pools together and have the tournament start on time. Remember, since you don't pay for online entry till you get to the tournament, there are only advantages to early entry. If you don't come to the tournament for some reason, then you don't pay.

We will be setting up on Friday evening starting at 6pm, so we would appreciate any time and effort that you can spare that evening.

JUNIOR DIVISIONS

Novice divisions may be created when the number of players in that age/weight group will support at least 4 players in each of the advanced and novice divisions created and maximizes the number of matches for the players. Novice divisions when created, at the Director's discretion may consist of any combination from white through orange belts. Since groupings will not be known until day of tournament, yellow and orange belt players should express preference for advanced grouping, if available, on the registration form.

Each age division will be divided into appropriate weight groupings as determined by entries. Our goal is to keep divisions within 10 pounds in the under 100 pound groups and within 20 pounds over in the over 100 pound groups.
